Spring, is that you?

I have to be honest, this winter has been somewhat of a letdown. My husband didn't even put our snow blower on the lawn mower! There is something about Minnesota and experiencing all four seasons, finding joy in each, and truly having an opportunity to embrace what each offers. Without snow, or much cold, children didn't get to make snowmen or angels, there was very little snowmobiling or snowshoeing, the joy of shoveling was lost 😊. "So negative" right? But without dismay there was more opportunity to walk our sidewalks without the worry of freezing or slipping, sit in the sunshine on the patios and even use the putting green- all year long! In each season we find ourselves wishing for the next, waiting for something different, a change of scenery. This winter we found a way to embrace the nutrient lacking grass and trees, finding beauty in a very, very long 'spring' season.

All that said, I challenge you to try something new this March, something we couldn't do in March's past. Maybe it is hitting the putting green out back or having lunch on an outdoor patio or maybe even crack a window on a 60 degree day. Life is short, do something a little crazy sometimes!

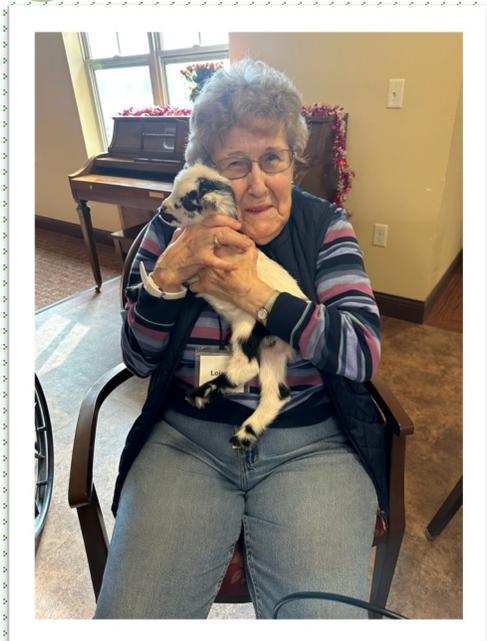

Not to speak for everyone but, I think we are beginning to make plans for summer- looking ahead to the fun we will have at Engel Haus- outdoor events like our Picnic and the Albertville Parade and other activities like trips to different gardens and time sitting outside socializing. We have a lot to be thankful for, even if we didn't get to enjoy the blessing of a white winter. As they always say, Mother Nature does her own thing- and this year, she was certainly the one in charge!

Baby Goat Visits

A Note from Brianna

It's sure starting to feel like springtime! It's been such a mild winter but we are all eager to get out on the patio and soak up some sunshine.

February was a fun month, in the beginning of the month we had some adorable baby goats stop by for a visit. It brought so much joy and smiles to the residents. Valentines Day we celebrated by having a party, with live music by Tom Paquin and served cupid floats. We also received many handmade Valentines cards for all residents by many kids in the area.

Coming up in March we will be having our next memorial service for those who have passed away from September 2023 to February 2024. This will be held on Thursday, March 21st at 3:00-4:00 in the ALD. Also our Engel Haus Choir has started up their practices again. And are planning to have another concert sometime this summer, date and more details to come.

We have lots of fun upcoming outings planned in March and April:

Happy Spring! This past winter was defiantly a graceful one. We are anxiously awaiting a bit warmer weather so we can put the patio furniture outside.
